

North American Perspectives on Borders and Security: Developing a Policy Narrative

Join leading academic, policy and government experts to learn about the future of North American border policy.

January 12, 2009
San Diego State University
San Diego, California

Issues facing the US-Mexico and US-Canada borders are not the same, but border policy in all three countries will increasingly be shaped by the same forces.

Co-chairs:

Rick van Schoik, Director, North American Center for Transborder Studies, Arizona State University

Don Alper, Director, Border Policy Research Institute, Western Washington University
