- The Role and Responsibilities of ACSUS

Canada: Near and Far. How is Canada perceived and portrayed from outside its borders, and by the international community? How is Canada understood by its expatriates? What role does the border have in creating or working against familiarity, or belonging? How has the coronavirus pandemic shaped Canadian relationships both locally and with the rest of the world? In recognition of ACSUS's 50 years work, what role do non-governmental agencies around the world play in shaping Canada's relationships with the world? Finally, as a professional organization dedicated to the promotion of Canadian Studies, what is ACSUS's role in these larger questions? Proposals that touch on these themes through diverse and critical perspectives are especially encouraged, though, as always, submissions on all subjects addressing Canada and Canadian-American relations are welcome.

The conference venue is the Hyatt Regency Crystal City, an upscale hotel located minutes from Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport and 4 miles from the White House.
